SPEAKER NICHOL: The bill advances. I'd like to have you remain just a few moments...we'll be through. Mr. Clerk, do you have anything? Okay, let me draw your attention to the handout I made this morning having to do with FMHA and the bankers in the State of Nebraska. Those of you who are interested in the farm crisis problem should be interested in this. The bankers are having a time when you can go and learn about it. The $40 does not apply to you. If you cannot go, you may send one of your aides. So I urge you to have either you go, or have your aide go to one of those meetings. Secondly, we'll have Final Reading tomorrow morning right off the bat. At eleven o'clock we'll adjourn to attend the Statehood Day in the Rotunda. LB 662 will be on tap Tuesday morning, I hope early, so that we will have a chance at least to get through it that day. Mr. Clerk, do you have something?
